

Arguably one of the hardest working women in comedy today, Tammy Pescatelli brings brassy sexiness with a bold voice of witty sarcasm to her audiences, holding her own on the topics of sports, television, dating and family life using tongue-in-cheek humor. She is relatable to every audience member-male & female. After seeing Tammy perform, nearly everyone wishes she was their best friend or sister!

“Tammy Pescatelli’s :Way After School Special”, her new special, is a highly anticipated follow up to Tammy’s award winning one hour Netflix (now both on Amazon Prime) special, “Finding the Funny.”

Tammy appeared on the highly acclaimed Showtime Comedy Special, “Women Of A Certain Age 2”.

Recently, she had a guest star role on “Blue Bloods” and was also chosen to be one of the few hosts of a new network, Circle TV’s standup show called “Standup Nashville: Live From Zanies”.

The clip from Tammy’s appearance on the “Just For Laugh’s Gala with Sebastian Maniscalco”, continues to climb in views on the JFL Facebook and Youtube page garnering close to 50 million views collectively.

Signed to Git R’ Done Records, Larry the Cable Guy’s label, Tammy took funny back in time with her successful album release, “#TBT: THROWBACK TAMMY”. #TBT debuted at the coveted number 2 spot on the iTunes and is in continuous play on SiriusXM, Pandora and many others

Tammy has had recent big appearances on The View, Guy's Grocery Games: Comics Compete and The Howard Stern Show and her being chosen by Jenny McCarthy & Donnie Wahlberg to be a part of their Dirty, Sexy, Funny franchise that included a hilarious all-female slate of standup comedians comedy special on EPIX/ Hulu, a touring show and a pilot for A&E.

With a slew of other accolades under her belt – including co- creating, executive producing, writing and starring in her own reality show, A Stand-Up Mother, on the WeTV Network – Tammy has appeared on a number of television shows like The Tonight Show with Jay Leno (4x), A&E's Donnie Loves Jenny(twice), Bravo's Rocco's Dinner Party, CBS's The Talk, NBC's Last Comic Standing: The Best of the Best, her own Comedy Central Present Special that won that year's Comedy

Central's Standup Showdown, and many, many more.

Tammy's career jumpstarted after appearing - and being one of the Final 5 - on NBC's Last Comic Standing. Her season played out to more than 18 million viewers, garnering her a mass of loyal new fans that found themselves alongside the others she had created by years of touring the comedy clubs.

It solidified her as one of the sharpest comics in the comedy world!

Pescatelli also guested a number of times on the syndicated Comics Unleashed show and was chosen for their "Best of the Best" that was a world-wide top selling DVD.

Internationally she also was featured on the Best of the Just For Laughs, in Montreal, Quebec Canada and The World Stands Up & The Laugh Factory in Europe and Australia.

Tammy recently starred as the flawed, yet lovable lead in in “That’s Amore”- an independent “grown up rom-com” that is available Amazon Prime. Her film credits include: Made in Brooklyn, I Am Battle Comic, Single: A Documentary Film and Everybody Wants to Be Italian.

Also a regular on USO Comedy tours, Tammy is honored and humbled to have been privileged to have entertained our troops all over the world.

She currently continues to tour and sell-out shows around the country.
